Your local Enterprise Agency is focused on helping small and medium sized businesses succeed. It works by building on the strengths and successes in each community and taking them to a new level. For help with starting a new business or expanding an existing one, call your Enterprise Agency first.

Each Enterprise Agency is unique and delivers a variety of core programs and services. It also develops programs to meet the needs of its local area. Some of the programs and services provided include:

- Small business counseling and development;
- Business plan development;
- Information on all available financial assistance;
- Information on markets, transportation, wage rates and taxes;
- Export development and investment information;
- Help locating suitable real estate to rent or purchase;
- Human Resources planning: staffing, training, subsidies.

Some Websites are available in one language only.
